

Practical insight into business crime in Norway

International Comparative Legal Guide to: Business Crime 2020 covers common issues in business crime - including criminal law enforcement, organisation of courts, corporate criminal liability, statutes of limitations, initiation of investigations, procedures of gathering information - in 28 jurisdictions.

Berit Reiss-Andersen, Victoria Palm and Ivar Valter Kristiansen have co-authored the Business Crime 2020 chapter for Norway with a particular focus on the criminal enforcement mechanism under Norwegian law.

Click to access the online guide.

DLA Piper has one of the leading teams within corporate and white collar crime in Norway. Read more about our practice here.

The image shows the cover of the book 'Business Crime 2020 10th Edition' by ICLG.com. The cover features a hand holding a US dollar bill. The text on the cover includes 'ICLG.com', 'COMPARE & RESEARCH THE LAW, WORLDWIDE.', 'Business Crime 2020', and '10th Edition'. On the right side, there are three author portraits with their names and affiliations: Berit Reiss-Andersen, Victoria Palm, and Ivar Valter Kristiansen, all from Advokatfirma DLA Piper Norway DA. The word 'NORWAY CHAPTER' is written in orange at the top right.

