Det anerkjente ratingbyrået Legal 500 har offentliggjort resultatene fra sin årlige advokatrangering for 2021. Nok en gang befester DLA Piper Norway posisjonen som ledende i det norske markedet innenfor fagområdene entrepris og forsikring med Tier 1-rangering, henholdsvis for 6. og 4. år på rad.

Videre er vårt eiendoms miljø rangert som et av de fremste i landet. Til sammen er vi rangert innen 12 fagområder og 31 av våre advokater er anerkjent innenfor sine respektive felt.

Vi er også glade for at Alexander Plows (forsikring) og Line Ravlo-Losvik (fast eiendom) anerkjennes som "Leading individuals", mens Arne Engesæth (entrepris) og Erik Ramm (bank og finans) er en del av Legal 500s Hall of Fame.

Vi takker våre klienter for flotte omtaler, disse kan du lese her.

Under finner du beskrivelsene av samtlige rangerte områder.

The team, which is part of the firm's regulatory group and leverages the firm's wider Nordic and global network, is led by Kjetil Haare Johansen, who has a focus on international trade and distribution mandates, intellectual property issues and M&A.

Insolvency and corporate recovery

DLA Piper regularly acts on regional restructuring and insolvency matters and also leverages its global capabilities to handle cross-border mandates, with notable expertise in bankruptcy proceedings in the hotel industry. Practice head Egil Hatling focuses on securities work, business analysis issues, schemes of arrangement and debt negotiations, while also working as a court-appointed administrator.

Intellectual Property

DLA Piper acts for many large international corporations on trade mark work including filing and prosecuting trade mark applications, as well as licensing and distribution matters. The team, which is led by Petter Bjerke, is also experienced in the IP aspects of transactions and contracts and provides advice on marketing law. Kjetil

Haare Johansen handles research and development agreements as well as unfair competition and market abuse matters.

Tax

Drawing on an extensive network of offices in the Nordic region, DLA Piper is praised for its expertise in the tax elements of corporate and capital markets transactions. The team is particularly strong advising financial services, real estate and construction clients. Practice head Preben Aas is notably active in the tax aspects of transactions, mergers and demergers.

TMT

DLA Piper's Oslo-based TMT team leverages the firm's global network to attract complex, cross-border mandates, acting for major multinational clients. A particular strength of the team is in data protection, GDPR and cybersecurity mandates. Petter Bjerke heads up the team, and has specialist experience advising clients in the media, telecoms, and advertising sectors.
