

DLA Piper with further strengthening of its insurance and dispute resolution team

Kjetil Haare Johansen
Partner, Country Managing Partner

DLA Piper is growing rapidly in Norway and in the Nordic region and is experiencing an ever-increasing demand for legal services within insurance law and dispute resolution. Our dispute resolution team was strengthened in 2022 with two new partners. Now we are pleased to welcome Mohsin Ramani as a new partner from 1 February 2023.

Mohsin Ramani joins from the law firm Glittertind and has particular experience with commercial disputes related to stock and company law, compensation claims and insurance. Mohsin is ranked as Up & Coming within both litigation and insurance law in Finansavisen's legal surveys for 2021 and 2022. In the insurance law category, he is top ranked among new talents.

Managing Partner at DLA Piper Norway, Kjetil Haare Johansen, says:

- DLA Piper has experienced growth in Norway and the Nordic region recently and we have had a strong development as a firm. We have a clear ambition for further growth and to offer the market an even better and stronger team of competent lawyers.

Mohsin has solid experience in handling major disputes both at home and abroad for Norwegian clients. It is with great pleasure that we welcome Mohsin as a partner in DLA Piper.

Mohsin Ramani will formally join DLA Piper Norway as a partner from 1 February 2023.
