

DLA Piper Exclusive Contributor to Chambers and Partners' Blockchain 2023 Guide for Norway

Camilla Wollan
Partner

Emma Bruin Coulthard
Advokatfullmektig

DLA Piper is the exclusive contributor to Chambers and Partners' Blockchain 2023 guide for Norway. The guide offers the latest legal insights on decentralized finance (DeFi), taxation considerations for blockchain and cryptocurrencies, non-fungible tokens (NFTs), initial coin offerings (ICOs), smart contracts, data privacy, protection, and mining.

The guide is authored by partner Camilla Wollan and associate Emma Coulthard. Camilla Wollan is recognized as one of the top Norwegian lawyers in fintech and holds a band one ranking by Chambers and Partners. Emma Coulthard is an associate and a key member of DLA Piper Norway's banking and finance team, focusing on new technology in the finance space.

Providing valuable resources, the guide assists individuals, businesses, and organizations in navigating Norway's blockchain landscape, covering a wide range of topics in-depth.
